

Eddy Lee

FCA, MSc | Partner – Head of Disputes and Litigation Asia

Eddy Lee is a Partner and Head of Disputes and Litigation Asia. He specialises in the areas of business valuation, economic loss quantification, cost verification, minority shareholder disputes and solving complex accounting issues.

He provides expert financial advice in cases of litigation and international arbitration and has been appointed both as a valuation and an accounting expert who has testified on numerous occasions.

Eddy is a Fellow of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales who, during his 20 year career, has advised on a array of issues such as including identification and quantification of lost profits, the valuation of businesses and financial assets including shareholdings, intellectual property, and of wasted costs.

He has prepared reports for submission to the Singapore High Court, Singapore International Commercial Court, the High Court of Malaysia, the High Court of England & Wales, the UK First Tier Tax Tribunal, the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and arbitral tribunals under ICC, SIAC, HKIAC and UNCITRAL rules.

Eddy has been “Recommended” by Who’s Who Legal in its global listings of the leading expert witnesses active in international arbitration. The publication described him as “very diligent and has a deep knowledge of his areas of expertise” and “[h]is expert reports are balanced and well substantiated by research”.

Eddy has also advised clients on regulatory matters, market assessments, and brand valuations and is regularly invited to speak at conferences and deliver training on a variety of economic damage quantification and other financial topics around the region.
